LOVE YOUR LOCAL FARMERS’ MARKETS

It has been a rough few months. Spring 2020 has been a season we will never forget and it would be an understatement to declare that we all need a little something to look forward to right now. But little can feel big. In fact, simple little things have brought bright spots to this often dark, challenging time. If you are reading this, you likely agree that food can bring joy. Our senses can ground us by focusing the purity of a moment, like that first bursting cherry tomato or that first lick of fresh peach ice cream or the dripping sweet juice from your first bite of watermelon. This summer, let us forget everything else for those brief moments and savor the escape that flavor can provide.
