

Love Your Local Farmers Markets!

Seasonal shifts present the opportunity to test your own half full versus half empty approach to life. Do you mourn the last tomatoes, thinking sadly in reminiscence about the summer piles of ruby beauties at the farmers market and feeling a loss of daily Caprese salads? Or instead, do you rejoice in what appears next, like those chunky winter squashes of all hues and their cozy possibilities in your kitchen? It's perhaps another method of mindfulness, to appreciate the seasonal ingredient as it arrives, enjoying it fully while it is here in our tote bags, on our countertops, in our stockpots, and then letting it go without remorse to welcome the next. —Amber Turpin
