Love Your Local Farmers Markets!

How does it all zip by so fast? It still feels like we were just coming out of that crazy winter, and now all of a sudden it is fall again. The calendar keeps turning, the seasons keep shifting and we continue to mark our time by what's at the market, on our tables and in our bellies. Perhaps it is lucky for us this year, with such a late onset of summer, that we can linger a bit with those deep season goodies.

Melons and eggplant and peppers and, of course, tomatoes, can easily segue into our fall menus. And maybe even make it to our (decolonized) Thanksgiving platters? Bioneers suggest featuring locally sourced ingredients as one way to re-center the holiday away from its oppressive beginnings. A great place to start is at our local farmers markets. —Amber Turpin
